GIVE IT AWAY HEARTILY.

WWW.RAYHER.COM

Pack it up – heartily!

With Rayher's Homemade Goodies, you can pack and decorate, quickly, simply and stylish, your homemade treats and artworks as a nice gift, for small celebrations, for big parties, when guests are expected – or just for yourself.

Here you will find everything that you need to put your small & big creations in the spotlight while being at the same time properly represented.

For whatever is made by yourself with love should be also lovingly presented or given away. Here, no limits are set to your fantasy.

You have a choice:

Take your ready-made creation (1) and let's start! Choose the corresponding packaging format – a bag or a glass for charming odds and ends, a box for special artworks (2). Now you can start being creative with colours (3), ribbons (4), tags, stickers, stamps or markers (5).

As creative as your idea

With Homemade Goodies of Rayher, there is no right or wrong! All is permitted that pleases! The homemade cakes gleam in no time with a trendy decoration, the homemade syrup can be served attractively in a flash and the self-cast soap finds its place in a creative box.

Simply fast - simply nicely packaged!

With Rayher's Homemade Goodies giving presents is even more fun! Whether it's about a vintage-wedding or baking cookies throughout the year - both the decorative wooden boxes and the trendy bags/cases out of kraft paper, provide the appropriate appearance. Small playful details such as lace paper, small items or feathers provide that certain something.

The perfect guest - or the perfect host!

The practical jars in various sizes are the packaging and the decoration rolled into one. You have to pack a coupon creatively, but pretty quickly? To conjure up an atmospheric decoration for the next garden party? Or to serve a homemade lemonade in an appealing way? No problem! And when the speed is of the essence: we have also a decorative gift paper for you that you may of course decorate creatively by means of a tag or a ribbon.

Lovingly accurate in every detail!

What makes a gift perfect? A short message! Everyone warms to the idea of a kind word or a cute motif. With our stamps, markers, tags and stickers, each message reaches its recipient. You are a practically-minded person? How about then with labelled storage jars or nameplates on your gifts for Christmas or St.Nicholas?

It depends on you!
Gifts speak always for their recipient, but also for their donor. You cannot find the right packaging for your perfect gift? Grab a brush and turn it into the instrument of your up-coming project! Wrap a ribbon or a cord of your choice around or think outside the box – why not store the soap in a fry box? You'll see, your gifts are going to become in no time true creative eyecatchers that will make the hearts of your loved ones skip a beat.
