Gather compliments par excellence

With a self-made jewellery, you will get an eye-catcher in no time. But there is even more: your own creations will give you such a fabulous feeling that will certainly make you shine all day long.

Whether delicate or opulent, individual jewellery is still relevant! And what makes your self-created jewellery even more beautiful? Noble and high-quality beads!

The Miyuki beads are particularly uniform in size and finishing, and therefore ideal for weaving and embroidery. The regularity ensures uniform width and even surfaces, which additionally increases your wearing comfort. Whether it is about threading, weaving or embroidery – the holes of the same size greatly simplify your work.

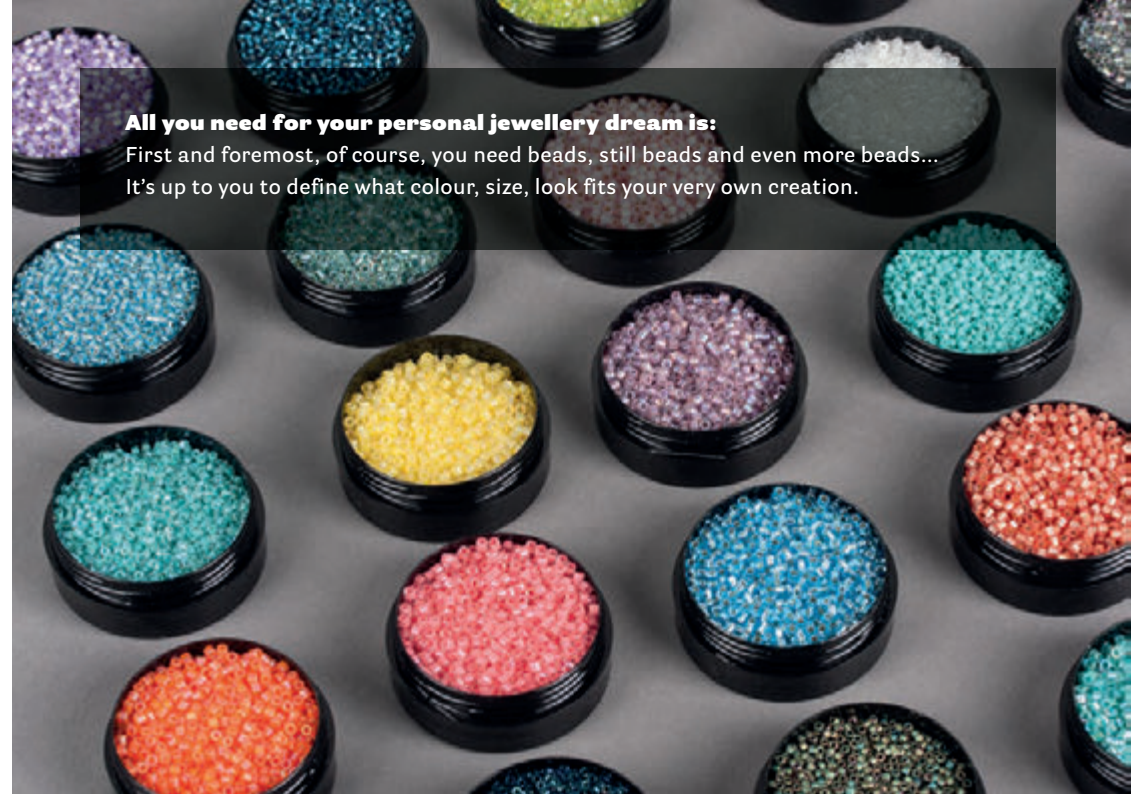

Miyuki refines every piece of jewellery thanks to its highest quality standard. Optionally combined or individually processed – set a highlight with your choice of beads!

All you need for your personal jewellery dream is:

First and foremost, of course, you need beads, still beads and even more beads... It's up to you to define what colour, size, look fits your very own creation.

The accessories are still essential

For special woven works, we recommend the Miyuki beading thread; fine threading needles and high-quality packaging material make your piece of jewellery complete. All of the above and much more, you can find with us. We offer you a perfectly matched range of accessories for all your jewellery dreams.

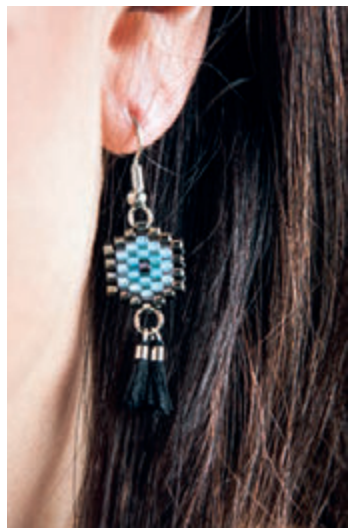

Perfect play of colours

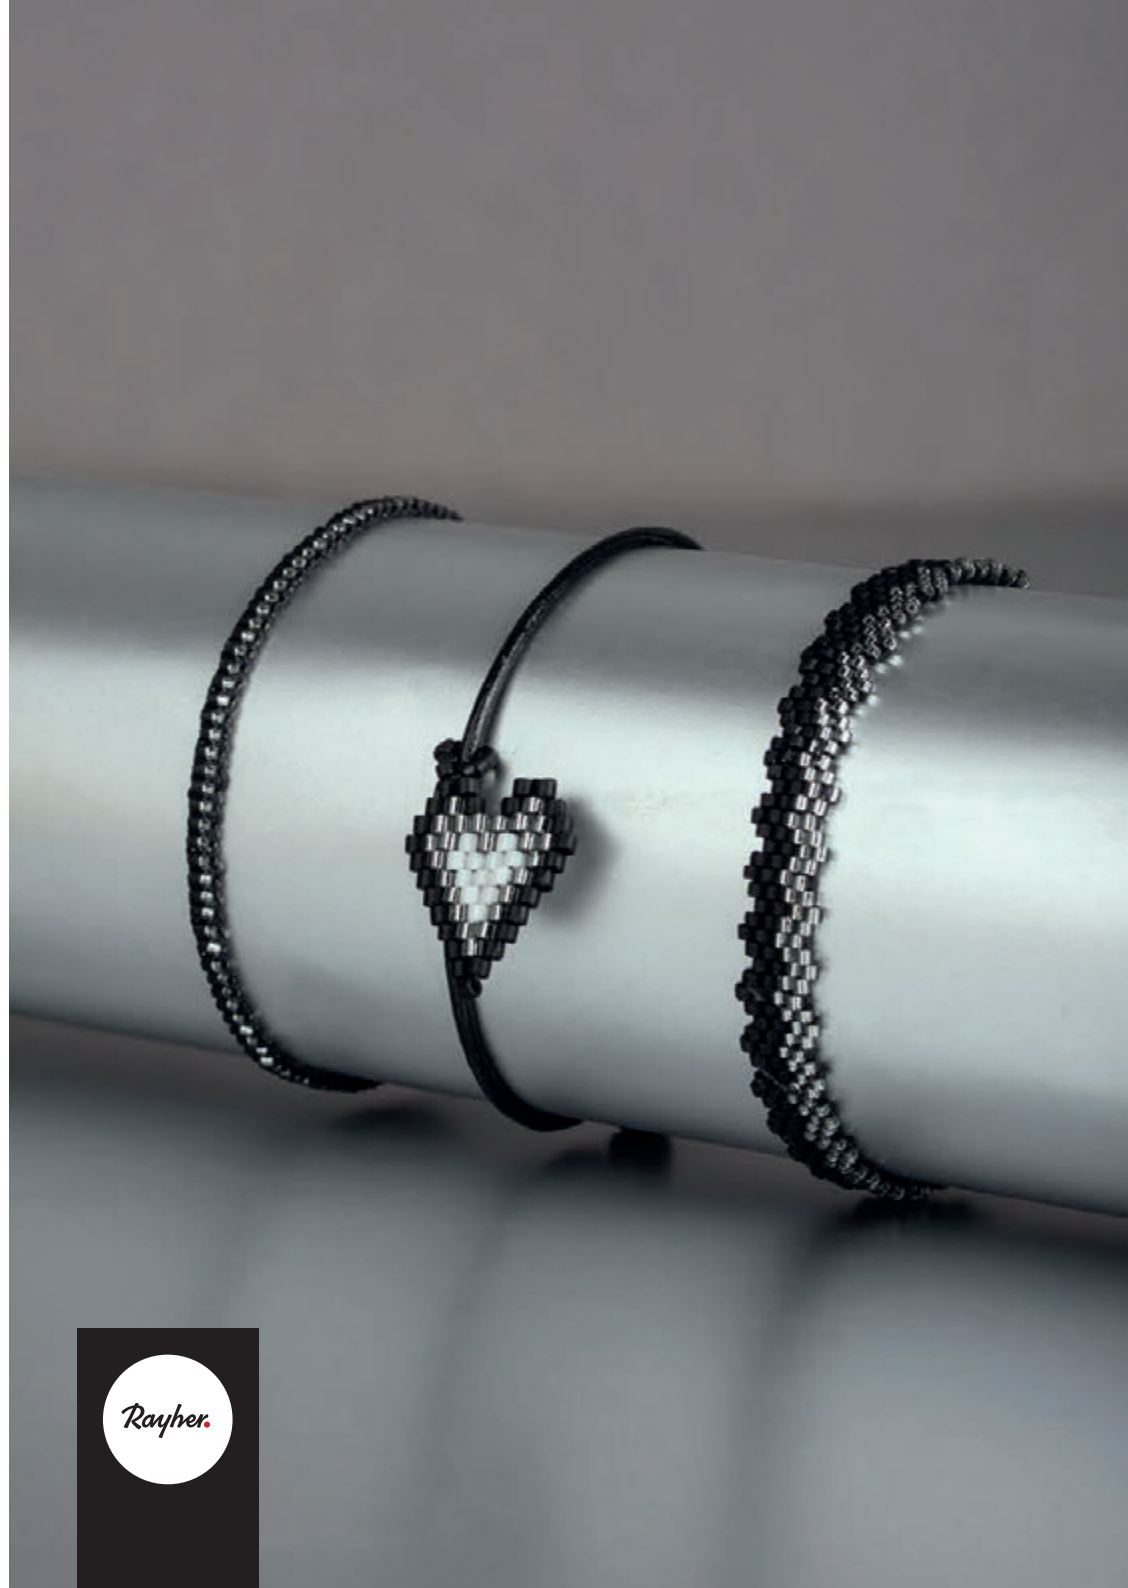

The cylindrically-shaped Miyuki-Delica Rocailles impress with their form and quality. They line up perfectly and thus create particularly noble, supple masterpieces with the highest wearing comfort.

The delicacy of these fine beads is wonderfully accentuated through filigree pieces of jewellery. With your personal colour combinations and sequences, your creations become unique and exclusive.

Eyecatcher with charm(s)

With Miyuki beads, you can create cute and trendy jewellery It-Pieces out of beads. Whether in the shape of a star, llama or raccoon – anything is possible!

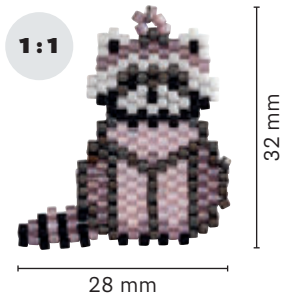

The quality and the variety of colours of Miyuki beads allow you to achieve all your ideas. The even surface that comes up, makes of your favourite motif an absolute highlight!

Just try it out...

As a charm on your wrist, as an eye-catcher on your favourite necklace or as a small, fine key ring - with Miyuki, you can create completely new & trendy creations in no time. Besides the beads, needles and beading thread, all you need now is a little practice.
