Instructions:

Preparing the click-fit bead string

1 Insert the threading silk into the bead stringing needle and pass it through a crimp cover and the flat metal ring. Then lead the end of the thread back through the crimp cover. Align the crimp cover and the jump ring in the middle.

2 Take a toothpick to spread a small drop of jewellery glue inside the crimp cover.

3 Use flat round pliers to crimp the crimp cover firmly. The thread shouldn't slip out.

4 String glass waxed beads and small Rocailles beads in turn from both ends of the thread, starting and ending with a glass waxed bead.

5 To finish off, pass both threads through a crimp cover and the jump ring of the lobster clasp, then lead the threads back through the crimp cover.

6 Coat the crimp cover with glue and secure it in place using the flat round pliers. Cut off the excess thread close to the crimp cover.

Preparing the link chains

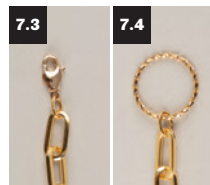

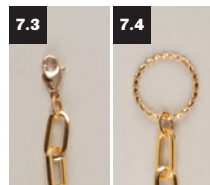

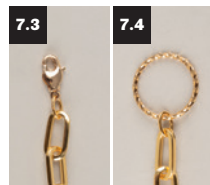

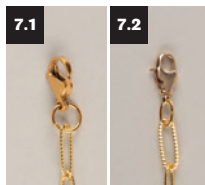

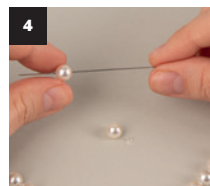

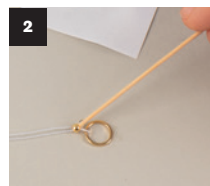

7 Cut the embossed Paperclip link chain into 2 parts using wire cutters: 22 cm and 28 cm.

7.1 Connect each piece (22 cm and 28 cm) to one of the ends using a jump ring and a large lobster clasp.

7.2 Attach the smaller lobster clasp to the oval jump ring on the other end of the 28 cm long piece.

7.3 Attach the smaller lobster clasp to one end of the Paperclip link chain (80 cm) using an oval jump ring.

7.4 Connect the twisted metal ring to the other end using an oval jump ring.

Instructions:

Connecting the different pieces of jewellery

8 By clicking in the lobster clasps, connect the different pieces to create a mobile phone chain.

9 Insert the hang-on patch into your mobile phone case and place your mobile phone inside.

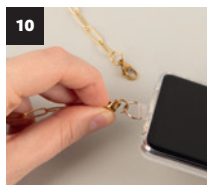

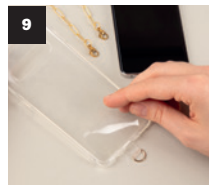

10 Attach the mobile phone chain to the eyelet of the hang-on patch.

TIP 1

Use two pairs of pliers to get a good grip on the jump ring. Open it by twisting away from you and close it by twisting back towards you. Do not pull it apart.

TIP 2

You can also wear these pieces of jewellery separately and combine them in different ways.
