Nicely threaded.
Little fir trees with beads

Used items:

For two fir trees

24 072 00	Iron wire, annealed	2.1 m
12 503 02	Wooden beads, polished, 10 mm ø, white	2 sachets
12 503 25	Wooden beads, polished, 10 mm ø, grey	2 sachets
65 201 000	Wood disc, round, 10 – 12 cm ø, natural	2 pieces
46 623 505	Decorative wood stars, assorted, natural	4 pieces

Additionally you need:

Hot-melt glue gun, pliers for wire bending, styrofoam cone

Instructions:

1 Cut a 1.05-meter-long piece of wire and make a loop at one end by means of pliers.

2 Thread the wooden beads onto the wire and make a loop at its far end.

3 Then wind the wire with the threaded beads around a pyramid-shaped object, e.g. a styrofoam cone. Straighten the bent beaded fir tree slightly so that it is standing upright.

4 Use a hot-melt glue gun to glue two stars together at the top of the beaded fir tree.

5 Place the finished wooden beaded fir tree onto the wood slice.
