Used items:

67 276 102	Paper block-bottom bag, white	21 pieces
51 704 616	Cord, 1 mm ø, gold	1.5 m
30 234 000	Glitter glue
39 420 620	Glitter dust, extra fine, gold

Additionally you need:

30 069 000 Special double-sided adhesive tape

Instructions:

1 Take the template to make patterns (angel and wings) out of sturdy cardboard. Place the angel pattern on the paper block-bottom bag (bottom side facing backwards) and trace its outline with a pencil.

2 Cut out the angel shape with scissors.

For the large angel, you'll need 15 cuttings from 15 paper block-bottom bags (1 cutting per bag) and for the small angel 12 cuttings from 6 paper block-bottom bags (2 cuttings per bag).

3 Stick the double-sided adhesive tape along the long side of the 14 cuttings (large angel) and along the edge of the 11 cuttings (small angel).

4 Then stick the cuttings together.

5 To make the angel shine, use the paintbrush to spread a bit of glitter glue around its edges, then sprinkle some glitter dust over the still damp glue.

IMPORTANT: each side should be splitted immediately after gluing, with e.g. a craft knife, to prevent them sticking together.

6 To make the wings, place the pattern on a piece of gold paper or cardboard, trace their outlines and cut the wings out with scissors.

7 Glue the wings to the rear side of the angel using the hot-melt glue gun.

8 Fan out the angels' sides and tie the golden cord around their waists and necks.
