53 795 000	stitching scissors
37 103 000	Brush flat
33 166 000	Styrofoam-plate 20 x 30 x 2 cm
	Tin foil

Instructions:

Prime the papier mâché circle with the DecoArt all purpose paint and let it dry thoroughly. Fix one paper stripe with the doublesided adhesive tape on the outside and one on the inside of the circle. Glue each on the left and right side of the striped strip (40 cm) a pink strip (25 cm) and fold the newly folded paper strip in the middle. With the help of the quilling pen, roll both edges to the outside, this will become the eyes. Place the papier mâché circle on the styrofoam-plate. Place the quilled eyes with beak into the circle and with the help of the pins form the eyes. For the ears and feet roll each 10 cm of the themed paper strips, and let them uncoil until they are about 1 cm. Glue them together, press them into shape and fix them onto the circle with the paper glue. With the help of the quilling comb form the wings and glue them into the form.
